In accordance with our traditions, our meetings will be inclusive of all suffering addicts. Anyone may join us, regardless of age, race, sexual identity, creed, religion or lack of religion.

Our meetings are intended to be a safe and beneficial place for all addicts. We are not concerned with what or how much you used but only what you want to do about your problem and how we can help. If you or someone you know feels you may have a problem our meetings can help. Those who keep coming to our meetings regularly stay clean.

“Everything that occurs in the course of NA service must be motivated by the desire to more successfully carry the message of recovery to the addict who still suffers.” Basic Text pg. xxvi

We have compiled a list of LGBTQ friendly recovery meetings in the Greater Los Angeles Area. The purpose of this meeting directory is to help the LGBTQ suffering addict to feel part of the life-saving fellowship of Narcotics Anonymous. In accordance with our traditions, our meetings will be inclusive of all suffering addicts. Anyone may join us, regardless of age, race, sexual identity, creed, religion or lack of religion. If you are new to recovery, we suggest attending 90 meetings in 90 days to help ground you in this crucial time.

A few notes about our meeting list:

While we do our best to make keep our meeting list up to date, sometimes meetings disband, and we are not notified. If you happen to visit a meeting that is no longer active, please take a moment to send an e-mail info [at] MeetingDirectory@glana.org and let us know. We will update our site as soon as possible.

Would you like to add your LGBTQ friendly meeting to our meeting list? That’s great, we would love to add it to our list. Please send that e-mail to info at] MeetingDirectory@glana.org and we will get it added.

Would you like to update a meeting that is already on the list? Please, copy and paste the meeting details as they appear on our website into an e-mail and let us know what details are changing. Send us an e-mail at info [at] MeetingDirectory@glana.org and we will get it updated.
